FOR THE JAMAICA MURDERS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

The Herald's foreign correspondence shows that the cause of the people is steadily advancing, notwithstanding the daily attempts of the more powerful monarchs to aggregate territory and solidify Imperialism by diplomacy.

Venicia is veering toward to the ballot-box, through which her people will complete the annihilation of Italy, and give hope and courage to the Hungarian people, who are still in rebellion.

Revolution studies the names in the house of the Cardinal insurgents and animates them to a re newment of the strife, which will open the dread

Eastern question, and at the same moment encourage the population of Italy and the millions of Ireland to bear their burdens patiently during this time.

Napoleon sees and feels his difficulties in the same way, and, we are assured Dixie, that he will be compelled to turn to the Foreign Department of France, the Emperor not acknowledging by the act that the Marquis DeMontier line not achieved or disclosed him in the art of State craft to that degree which is necessary for the Imperial service at this particular crisis.

Baron Bunsen's appointment in the Austrian Gallantry and Prussia, and consequently in China, with the King of Prussia, more in favor of perfecting a Russo-German alliance.

The Emperor of Austria employs himself in visiting the field, the results of his late defeat in Italy appear to be a melancholy one, both in interest and the receptions accorded him.

The Russian newspaper organizes France and England with engaging in an active struggle for the exclusion of the Czar from the final settlement of the Eastern question, and assert in plain terms that it cannot be adjusted without Russia, but if such a result were possible and occurred, the subjects would be received in a manner most disadvantageous to the opponents.

London, Nov. 19.

Before official hours to day there was a long inquiry for United States 7-10 bonds and rates were reported at 70% (67/100), against 70% (67/100) on Saturday. The advantage was fully utilized at the regular opening of the market, when rates were again quoted at 70% (67/100).

Bids for 100 bonds were received at 67/100, and the market was dull, and the price was 70% (67/100).

The following rates were reported to-day:

70% (67/100) for 100 bonds.

in the Cleveland Court last week.

The typhoid fever is raging in Meadville.

Several sudden deaths have occurred from the disease.

The Montville Republicans state that Mr. J.

by Sheriff Peck.

A meeting of Protection Engine Company will be held at the Engine House, this evening,

The Western Union Telegraph Office at

Boyd Farm has been moved into the Oil Creek ticket office at this place.

A few miles west of Titusville will be found another

The Brotherhood hold a meeting tonight in Hargrave Hall. Hark to the slogan and look out for the Blowgun!

The National Telegrapher's Union have passed resolutions of respect for the memory of E. D. Stade, their late associate, who was killed in the track at Boyd Farm.

The bogus Signor Blitz who, performed here last summer is at Harrisburg. The "real, original," Blitz is at Philadelphia, and advertises the former as an impostor.

The Scoville well on Church Run, spouted oil and gas yesterday very extensively. The owners are very sanguine of a fine development.

The well is on the Felton Farm.

—The Accident Insurance Companies have been doing a lively business since the late railroad accidents. Bates & Co., of Titusville, and Tennant & Co., of Petroleum Centre, sell the survival values.

Vagrant cattle are daily and nightly foraging upon private grounds. The owners of such animals can be made to pay roundly for their depredations. A case of this sort is advertised in another column.

—Our esteemed literary contributor, R. W.

Dr. returns to New York to-day. Should he revisit Baden Baden, we may reasonably expect a cheerful and glowing sequel to the amusing personal adventures already published.

—Soldiers who have bound duty should remember that three months have elapsed of the six months which were allowed them for filing their applications. Those who have not presented their claims should do so immediately.

—A Philadelphia subscriber (an oil merchant) wrote to us: "I find the MORNING HERALD, which reaches us the next morning after publication, a reliable and entertaining paper. Many of my friends think it the best country daily paper published in the State."

—There is to be a "Massachusetts Indian show" in Crittenden Hall, on Monday evening next, on which occasion the veritable Ponahontus will save the life of the original John Smith for the first time in Titusville, and amid considerable squaw-king by the strength of the company.

—Andy Johnson has been proposed as an honorary member of the Swordsman's Club at Pit-hole. As his party was only about forty votes in the minority at the late election, it is thought this proceeding will enable them to elect a Jeff Davis Burgess pretty soon.

—The Corry Daily Telegraph occasionally reaches us the day after publication, but more frequently on the second day. The Meadville Republican, thirty-nine miles further distant, and passing over the same road, invariably comes to hand on the day of publication. Why is this thus?

—Another match game of base ball, between the Senators, of Oil City, and the Venango, of Franklin, took place last week, and resulted in a victory for the former, by a count of 40 against

19. The Franklinites were quite crestfallen having won the first game, and announced themselves "champions."

—Our first page will be found an obituary notice of the late Charles N. Tripp, who died at New Orleans on the 30th of September. He was an enterprising oil man, and was pursuing important geological investigations at the South.

His brother, Mr. Henry Tripp, of Schenectady,

N. Y., writes us that the remains of the deceased were brought to that city for interment.

—An ACCOUNT WITH THE ASTRONOMERS.—Somebody who was terribly beaten last week, renders the following account against the false astronomical prophet for damages incurred by failure of the prediction:

EXTENSIVE PURCHASE OF WELL INTERESTS.—Geo. K. Anderson has bought the entire working interests of leases No. 1, 32, 36, 45, 51 and 52, Stevenson Farm, of Carter & Robb. Wells have been completed on all the leases except 51, and that has a new twelve horse-power Wood & Main engine. They all have a splendid

They were all good wells.

He expects to torpedo and case some of them, and he feels satisfaction as good as are on the Farm.

—Gold has taken a fall. Provisions have to come down. H. J. Hershberg & Co. acknowledge the fact, and reduce their prices accordingly. They are selling good fresh eggs at 40 cents per dozen at retail, and everything else at lower rates than formerly, to correspond with the times.

ELECTION BILLS.—The practice of betting on elections is one that we have never commanded, but it is not so bad to lay a wager as it is to repudiate when beaten. Lot all honorable men who staked and lost, pay up and resolve to sin-no more is that direction. Those who risked clothing on the result of this election are now stocking in considerable numbers to Strauss &

Stettheimer's, to have their orders for suits.

The goods are there to make the garments, whatever may be desired, and the artists are there to make them in style.

The Crawford County Teachers' Institute at Sparrowsburg, Editorial Correspondence.

SPARTANBURG, Nov. 17, 1866. The Crawford County Teachers' Institute which has been in session in this borough for the past four days, adjourned last (Friday) evening sine die. The number of teachers in attendance has been over one hundred, and they have been freely and hospitably entertained by the townspeople of Spartanburg. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, a fair number of spectators were present each day, while a large concourse assembled in the evenings at the Presbyterian Church, to witness the literary exercises. These institutes, organized a few years since, have been found to be highly useful to the members, and beneficial to the schools.
